

RECRUITMENT AND ADMISSIONS

Policy

DEFINITIONS

Terms in this document, for which definitions are not provided in the text or may not be self-evident or for which usage at ACC may differ to that in other higher education institutions are as follows:

Admission: The process by which a prospective student is assessed to determine the extent to which their qualifications comply with those required to commence studies in the ACC Chiropractic program to which they have applied.

Alternative entry qualification: Alternative entry qualification allows international students to use other qualifications, life and work experience to meet the admissions requirements.

Inherent Requirements: Inherent requirements are the essential components of a program or unit that demonstrate the abilities, knowledge and skills of a student to achieve the core learning outcomes of the program or unit, and include language, writing and computer skills, as well as ability to work in a team and to work safely.

International/Overseas Student: A prospective or enrolled student who is not an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident, New Zealand citizen, or holder of an Australian permanent resident humanitarian visa, and who requires an international student visa from the Australian Government to study in Australia, whether applying to ACC from within Australia or from overseas.

Pre-requisite studies: Areas and levels of study specified by the ACC, which a student must have successfully completed to be eligible for admission to the ACC Bachelor of Chiropractic program.

Selection: The process used by the ACC to determine which applicants, of those eligible for entry into the program, will be offered a place and be permitted to enrol.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure the transparent and consistent application of standards for the recruitment, selection, and admission of students into ACC programs. It reflects the standards of the ACC Academic Board and the undertakings of the College in implementing its Quality Assurance Framework.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all prospective students and applicants, domestic and international, for admission to programs offered by the ACC.

POLICY STATEMENT

This policy aims to ensure that ACC recruitment processes and student applications for admission are managed in a fair, transparent, and consistent manner.

The ACC has established a set of standards and procedures to be adhered to in recruiting students and making offers of admission. These standards and procedures ensure ethical recruitment practices, rigorous assessment of applicant eligibility for admission which uphold the brand promise of the ACC.

1. Recruitment

- 1.1. Recruitment of students for the ACC will be fair, transparent, and consistent.
- 1.2. The Marketing and Student Engagement Manager is responsible for implementation of recruitment strategies and actively attracting prospective students to ACC programs.
- 1.3. The College is committed to providing equitable access to education. This involves adjusting recruitment strategies in order to achieve a balanced representation of applicants from groups that may be under-represented in the student population.
- 1.4. Specific program information will describe the inherent requirements of the program in sufficient detail to make clear to prospective students, including those with disabilities or chronic health condition, the process by which reasonable adjustments may be considered to enable them to meet inherent requirements, as indicated in the College's Statement on Inherent Requirements.

2. Admissions

- 2.1. Admissions assessment processes will be fair, transparent, and consistent.
- 2.2. The General Manager has delegated authority to make admissions offers and enrol students.
- 2.3. The Academic Dean and College President, following consultation with the Academic Board, will set the number of enrolment places available.
- 2.4. A clear statement of admissions requirements for each program that are approved by the Academic Board is made public.
- 2.5. The ACC may admit applicants who have appropriate:
 - Higher Education studies (or credit equivalence for assumed knowledge);
 - Vocational Education and Training (VET) studies;
 - Secondary education;
 - Work and life experience sufficient to undertake higher education study; or
 - International academic equivalence.
- 2.6. All applications shall be accompanied by true and certified copies of documents verifying academic qualifications and results.
- 2.7. Academic merit for international students is assessed based on their:
 - most recent studies in Australia (if applicable); and/or
 - most recent studies in their home country.
- 2.8. All international qualifications are checked against the National Office for Overseas Skills Recognition (NOOSR) database. Should a qualification not be able to be verified by NOOSR, the ACC will endeavour to seek other means of verification.

- 2.9. All applications must be in writing and accompanied by all required supporting documentation.
- 2.10. No applicant will be excluded from or disadvantaged in the offer of admission or the selection process by reason of religious belief, political opinion, race, gender, age, marital status, sexual orientation or responsibility for dependents
- 2.11. In addition to inherent requirements, international students are required to meet particular admission conditions, including a relevant study visa, health insurance from an approved provider, and English language competence to meet the program's study requirements.
- 2.12. The College may, in its absolute discretion, refuse admission to an applicant where the applicant:
 - has previously been suspended or excluded from the ACC or any other tertiary education institution for academic reasons, including but not limited to academic dishonesty or unsatisfactory academic progress; or
 - has outstanding fees owing to the ACC (based on the past history of the applicant).
- 2.13. All applicants will be notified in writing of the outcomes of their application.

Appeal

- 2.14. Appeals must be made in writing to the ACC Admissions Office at admin@acc.sa.edu.au. The appeal decision will be based on the written material and evidence provided.
- 2.15. Applicants who wish to appeal a decision made under this policy must do so within ten (10) working days of receiving notification of the admission decision, and are referred to the ACC Grievance Management Non-academic (Students) Policy and Procedures, available at <https://acc.sa.edu.au/current-students/policies/> for further information.

IMPLEMENTATION and MONITORING

The Academic Board and its subcommittees are responsible for benchmarking ACC's admission policies with other relevant higher education providers and providing to the Board of Directors reports and recommendations on standards and processes applicable to the ACC.

The Academic Board and its subcommittees are responsible for approving admissions requirements and admissions requirements statements for each program.

The Marketing and Student Engagement Manager is responsible for recruiting or attracting potential ACC applicants.

The General Manager is responsible for selecting applicants who are to be offered a place in a program.

REVIEW

The ACC's Recruitment and Admissions Policy is normally reviewed every three years. It is a policy of the ACC that any Policy or Procedure may be reviewed earlier as indicated by internal or external factors (including but not limited to such factors as changes in the guidelines of regulatory authorities, accreditation/registration requirements of the profession, or relevant legislation at state or federal level) as determined by the Board of Directors and/or Academic Board.
